4 . The following agenda point put forth by the Tirupur Exporter's Association were taken up for discussion: -

POINTS RAISED BY TIRUPPUR EXPORTERS' ASSOCIATION (TEA):-

Their member's shipping bills (SCM Garments Pvt Ltd) are pending due to EGM filing issues, EGM errors and pending stuffing reports for a long time. Despite repeated follow-ups and submission of the necessary inputs and supporting documents to the respective Customs authorities, the issues are yet to be resolved.

Due to the prolonged delay, the eligible export incentives, including Duty Drawback and RoSCTL, are also being held up.

They request for kind intervention to expedite the clearance of the pending shipping bills and facilitate the release of the eligible export incentives at the earliest.

Reply furnished by Tuticorin CH : Letter issued to DG system vide letter dated 04.09.2026. Based on the request sent by the office, Patch has been deployed. EGM error are under process for resolving and getting resolved one by one. Further, M/s. SCM Garments Pvt. Ltd. is requested to approach the concerned Section of Custom House, Tuticorin, along with complete details of the pending Shipping Bills, the specific EGM error/error code reflected in the system, and all relevant supporting documents, so that the cases may be examined and necessary action may be taken for early resolution.

Upon rectification of the relevant EGM/stuffing-related issues and completion of the prescribed system requirements, the eligible export incentives, including Duty Drawback and RoSCTL, may be processed as per the applicable provisions

5. Apart from above discussion of agenda points and other general discussion, no points relating to Gulf crisis have been raised.
